HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE:

The first known owner of this house was Charles K. Tucker who is shown as the owner on the 1853 map. C.K. Tucker (1811-1889) was born in Concord, New Hampshire and lived in Charlestown before moving to Lexington in 1842. He served on the board of overseers of the poor and represented the district in the legislature in 1858. He was a wheelwright by trade and the 1853 shows a shop building to the west of the house. The 1889 map indicates that the house and shop were then owned by the C.K. Tucker estate.
